

JASMUN '24 Resolution Guideline

Formatting:

1. Font: Times New Roman
2. Size: 12 pt
3. All pre-ambulatory words must be in italics.
4. All operative words must be in bold and underlined.
5. Pre-ambulatory clauses should not be numbered.
6. Pre-ambulatory clauses can not have sub clauses.
7. Operative clauses must be numbered (1, 2, 3 ...). All sub-clauses must be numbered in the latin alphabet (a, b, c ...). All sub-sub-clauses must be numbered in roman numerals (i, ii, iii ...).
8. All numbers in operative clauses must be followed by a period.
9. In pre-ambulatory clauses, every clause should end with a comma. No exceptions.
10. In operative clauses, every sentence should be followed by a comma. The two exceptions are when listing, a colon should be used, and in the very last sentence of a clause a semicolon to indicate the end of a clause.
11. The header must follow the guide below:
 - Forum:
 - Topic:
 - Main Submitter:
 - Co-Submitter/s:
 - Signatories:

Rules:

1. Only one main submitter may submit a resolution.
2. The maximum number of co-submitters may be 2.
3. The main submitter has to be the one to present the resolution to a committee.
4. Countries may be signatories to however many resolutions as they would like.

5. A country can only be a main submitter or co-submitter to one resolution only.
6. A majority of 1/2 of the committee must be signatories to allow to resolution to be presented.
7. A majority of 2/3 of the committee must vote 'yes' to allow a resolution to pass.
8. (Only in the Security Council and Historical Security Council) Any 'no' vote from a P5 country (USA, UK, France, China and Russia) causes the entirety of the resolution to fail, regardless of the majority.
9. Observer states (such as the Palestinian Authority and the Vatican City) may not vote on any resolution.
10. If more than 3 unfriendly amendments to a resolution pass, the resolution fails.
11. Upon chair discretion, friendly amendments are applied.
12. For an unfriendly amendment to be applied to a resolution, a majority of 1/2 of the committee must agree.

Friendly vs Unfriendly Amendments

Friendly Amendments	Unfriendly Amendments
Changes to punctuation	Changes to vocabulary
Changes to grammar	Deletion/Addition of phrases
Changes to formatting	Deletion/Addition of clauses
